

Mystery Photo – Week 22

The clue was: This is part of a structure that contains a replica of something and honors certain groups of people.

Answer: This part of the building located at the Veterans' Memorial Park on Lincoln Street. The building covers an exact replica of the Liberty Bell and the park features many tributes to those that served in all branches of our armed forces and in all conflicts since the Civil War.

