Dispatch Sit-Along Program

PenCom, the Communications Division of the Port Angeles Police Department, encourages applicants for the position of dispatcher to participate in our sit-along program. The program is designed to provide an opportunity to observe PenCom dispatch operations and procedures.

Participation in the program requires that you:

Be a resident, a student, or potential applicant

Be at least 18 years of age

Have no criminal record

Have no medical restrictions that might jeopardize your safety or the safety of Department personnel

Be neat and clean in appearance when you arrive for your sit-along. Casual attire is acceptable.

All applicants are subject to a security check prior to approval. Applicants are also subject to cancellation by the Communications Supervisor, and may be disqualified without cause.

Please complete the application below and return it to the Port Angeles Police Department at 321 East 5th Street in Port Angeles. If you have any questions, please contact a Communications Supervisor at 360-417-4971.

Once processed you will be contacted to schedule a Sit-Along in our Communications Center.

Thank you for your interest.
